

CARAVAN

E C G D

Monday morning, such a cold day.

E C G D

Need some comfort. Chase my blues away.

E G C D

Here it comes. Such a small thing.

E G D

But where would I be without it.

E C G D

Friday evening, all your money's gone.

E C G D

Can't go nowhere, won't go home.

E C G D

There it stands, yellow lights aglow.

E G D

Warm and cosy conversation.

G D A E

Caravan, out there sitting in the square.

G D A E

Caravan, you can meet anybody there.

G D A E

Caravan where they treat everyone the same.

G D A E

Caravan, no regrets. You'll be glad you came.

A7 D7 A7 D7

Make a difference to everyone you meet.

A7 D7 A7 D7

Close the distance, Bring healing to the streets.

A7 D7 A7 D7

Make a difference. Show them all you care.

A7 D7 A7 D7

Close the Distance between here and there.

E C G D

All are welcome. It's an open door.

E C G D

Bring your troubles. There's a listening ear.

E C G D

Rest for weary. Drink for thirsty.

E G D

Pointing in the right direction

G D A E

Caravan, invitation, come to rest or play.

G D A E

Caravan, giving Jesus in a Jesus way.

G D A E

Caravan, need some comfort, chase your blues away.

G D A E

Caravan, city mission, keep the wolf at bay.

G D A E

Caravan, out there, sitting in the square.

G D A E

Caravan, you can meet anybody there.

G D A E

Caravan, one more reason, what I'm living for.

(Repeat Chorus)
