

Your House from Here

Dm Am C Gm Bb
I can see your house from here the windows and the walls from here
F Dm Am C Dm
The colours that were chosen to cover the place where you live
Am C Gm Bb
I can see your house from here, the bricks and the mortar from here
F Dm Am C Bb
A warm little haven, is quite the impression it gives
Gm Dm
Yes I can see the care that you've taken so neat and so clean
Gm Bbmaj7
To satisfy each passerby that nothing is amiss...
F
...but I can see your house from here

RIFF

Dm Am C Gm Bb
I can see your room from here your privacy and rest from here
F Dm Am C Dm
Your photographs and memories and ribbons and letters and things
Am C Gm Bb
I can see your room from here, the brightness and the gloom from here
F Dm Am C Bb
The secrets and ambitions and plans and worries that they bring
Gm Dm
Yes I can see your moves and your struggles, your whispers and pleas
Gm Bbmaj7
The thoughts and the deeds you hoped no other eyes could see
F
But I can see your room from here

Instrumental: (Dm.....Am.....C.....Gm.....Bb.....F.....) x2

Dm Am
Every friend or invader that came to your door
C Gm
Every act good or evil they come to you for
Bb F
Every lure of temptation you tried to ignore
Dm Am
Every voice of conviction running hard in your head
C Gm
Every word of resistance that were all left unsaid

Bb F
Every cry of despair as you lay on your bed
Dm Am
As you judged your behaviour and denied your regret
C Gm
And despised your intention now beholding the debt
Bb F
As you wait for the beast that will swallow you yet
Dm Am
Now the price to be paid without any dispute
C Gm
For the eyes that grew dim in the days of your youth
Bb F
For the mind that let in only notions to suit,
Dm Am
for creation cries out for justice and truth
C Gm
And there stands the accuser presenting the proof,
Bb Bbmaj7
But judgment will turn upon one simple truth
F
That I can see your heart from here

Outro: (Dm.....Am.....C.....Gm.....Bb.....F.....)