

Long Ago

A7

E7

I should have come in long ago, For many years I walked on past your door

A7

E7

I should have come in long ago, For many years I walked on past your door

B7

But I was in my home shoes and

C7

B7

E7

Didn't want to muddy up your floor

A7

E7

I heard that you were hanging here but I, Thought this place was way too small for you

A7

E7

I heard that you were hanging here but I, Thought this place was way too small for you

B7

So ordinary looking

C7

B7

E7

Not what I would associate with you.

A7

E7

I searched for you in Birmingham In Bateau Bay, in Nelson and LA

A7

E7

I looked for you in Trinidad Got loaded down and kind of lost my way

B7

They said that I just missed you

C7

B7

E7

But they didn't say when you'd be back again.

A7

E7

I should have come in long ago, I could have saved myself a lot of pain

A7

E7

I should have come in long ago, I could have saved myself a lot of pain

B7

I thought you'd make it harder

C7

B7

E7

For me to turn around and start again.

A7

E7

I should have come in long ago, For many years I've walked on past your door

A7

E7

I should have come in long ago, For many years I've walked on past your door

B7

But I didn't have my town clothes and I

C7

B7

Still had on my home shoes and I

C7

B7

Couldn't mind my p's and q's and I

C7

B7

E7

Thought you'd turn me away.
