

POSTSCRIPT

Intro: F F C G G

C G

Listen Christine, I've been wanting to say something for a while

Dm Am

You're my favourite girl, these are my favourite chords

G C G

And I wanna put them both together , by way of explanation, by way of excuse

F

You see I wanted to leave you with something worthwhile

C G

Something of use

C

And I know I'm not the easiest guy to get along with

G

I know I've made a few mistakes,

F

But I was gonna get around to changing that some day

C G

You know how long these things take

C

But I want you to know Christine

G

Even though there have been other loves in my life besides you

F C G

On the night when I left town I was thinking of you

C G
Listen, Christine, I'm not coming back this way again ever

Dm Am
So whatever you do, do it only for you

G
And don't make any plans that include me

C G
I know my destination is not what you would choose

F
You see, I'm such an unpredictable,

C G
Shakey and loose

C
But I didn't mean for things to end the way they did

G
I wouldn't even call it fate.

F
Sometimes a move is forced upon someone

C G
Before its too late

C
But I want you to know Christine

G
Even though there have been other loves in my life besides you

F C G
On the night I left town I was thinking of you

C
Yes I want you to know, Christine even

G

Though there have been one or two other

loves in my life besides you

F

On the night that I quietly slipped out of town I was thinking of you.

C

G

SOLO:

C C G G Dm Am G G x 2

Repeat Chorus twice

ENDING:

C C G G F C G G C C G G Dm Am G G repeat and fade out